

City of Killeen

- WHEREAS Volunteer service is part of the American character and is particularly engrained in the Killeen community; and
- WHEREAS Family Volunteer Day celebrates the strength of families and the power they have in effecting change in our community and society; and
- WHEREAS Today, families of all kinds will join with others that are alike and different to work together on projects that will benefit those in need; and
- WHEREAS Family volunteerism is essential to extending the value of helping others to the next generation; and
- WHEREAS From children to great grandparents, members of all ages can build the bond of family through building a stronger community; and
- WHEREAS Killeen Volunteers, Inc. works tirelessly to promote the spirit of volunteerism through events like this which mobilize people and resources to address community needs and enhance quality of life through volunteerism.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jose L. Segarra, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Killeen do hereby proclaim Saturday, November 18, 2017 as:

Family Volunteer Day and urge my fellow citizens to use this day to connect with their families and others to work on projects that make our city a better place for all.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Killeen to be affixed this 14th day of November, 2017.

Jose L. Segarra, MAYOR
