

City of Killeen

- WHEREAS Today, we gather in Killeen to join with millions across our country in observance of the National Day of Prayer; and
- WHEREAS the privilege of prayer has been a tradition in America since the Continental Congress first declaring a day of prayer in 1775; and
- WHEREAS President Harry S. Truman signed a joint resolution with Congress in 1952 establishing an annual National Day of Prayer, and today we mark its 65th observance; and
- WHEREAS on this day, all people are encouraged to pray as a sign of unity and support for our nation and its leadership; and
- WHEREAS life-altering, world-changing prayer cannot happen in a single day, but by committing to daily prayer and encouraging others to do so, we together can make change; and
- WHEREAS the theme for this year's national event is "Pray for America - UNITY" urging individuals and groups to stand together in prayer, united in peace so that the world might see the power of unity.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Jose L. Segarra, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Killeen do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 3, 2018 the local celebration of:

National Day of Prayer

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Killeen to be affixed this 24th day of April, 2018.

Jose L. Segarra, MAYOR
