CITY MANAGER FINALIST WITHDRAWS

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): Killeen City Council announced their selection of Ron Olson for the city manager position at Tuesday's workshop meeting. Olson submitted notification today that he is withdrawing from consideration.

City Council interviewed three candidates for the position, Daniel Biles, John Murphy and Ron Olson, October 29.

Killeen City Council engaged Strategic Government Resources (SGR) to conduct and manage the nationwide search which brought 32 applicants, 17 with experience as city manager or assistant city manager. Candidates were vetted through a comprehensive questionnaire, online interviews, psychometric assessment, thorough media searches and rigorous background investigations. The results produced five finalists, three of whom were interviewed.

SGR will provide information to Council about potential next steps.
