FREE HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE COLLECTION SATURDAY

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): Killeen residents can safely dispose of household hazardous waste free of charge Saturday from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Central Bell County Fire and Rescue, 100 North Main Street in Nolanville.

Acceptable materials include petroleum products, corrosives, fertilizers, cleaners, pesticides, paint, automotive liquids and fluorescent lamps. A complete list of acceptable and unacceptable chemicals is available at www.killeentexas.gov/hhw.

Batteries and electronics will be accepted, excluding televisions.

Up to four passenger car and light truck tires will be accepted with no charge.

Prohibited materials include ammunition, explosives, medical waste, radioactive material, compressed glass cylinders and commercial tires. These items will not be accepted.

Residents should carefully load hazardous waste into their vehicles securing any fragile or awkward containers. Waste should be in original containers with original labels if possible. Leaking containers should be placed in a spill-proof container or bag.
