Farewell to Municipal Court Judge Barbara Weaver

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): The City of Killeen will bid farewell to Municipal Court Judge Barbara Weaver at a reception next Thursday at 5 p.m. at the Killeen Civic & Conference Center. The public is invited.

City Council appointed Weaver presiding judge of the Killeen Municipal Court in 2000. She served as the court's first female judge and will retire this month.

Weaver holds a doctor of jurisprudence from Texas Tech University and a bachelor of science from the University of Central Texas. She is solo practitioner of Barbara A. Weaver, Attorney at Law and has served as a member of the Central Texas College Board of Trustees, Greater Killeen Chamber of Commerce Executive Committee, and Central Texas Armed Services YMCA Board of Directors.

Weaver is married with three children and five grandchildren.
