KILLEEN CELEBRATING THE SEASON

(KILLEEN, TEXAS): The City of Killeen and the Celebrate Killeen Committee will kick off the holiday season Friday with the annual Holiday Under the Stars event at the Killeen Community Center, 2201 East Veterans Memorial Boulevard. The public is encouraged to join the fun.

The two-day event begins Friday, December 4, at 5:30 p.m. with the lighting of the silhouette Christmas tree. Polar Express and Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas will play on the amphitheatre movie screen at 6 p.m. Activities throughout the evening will include the city's synthetic ice skating rink, pictures with Santa, a children's fun land, hayrides on the Andy K. Wells Hike and Bike Trail, arts and crafts, food and more.

The event will continue Saturday, December 5, from 1 to 6 p.m. Activities will include ice skating, hayrides, children's fun land, arts and crafts and food.

For more information on this or other holiday events, contact Parks & Recreation at 501-8889.
