FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 11, 2010

Killeen Police are investigating the death of a 29 year old Belton man that was located on Sunday, January 10, 2010, just before 9:00pm.

Officers responded to the 6100 block of Stillwood Drive at approximately 8:45pm after receiving a 911 call about a male that was not moving in the wooded area behind the residence. Upon the officers arrival they met with the caller and with members of the Harker Heights Police and Fire Departments. The preliminary investigation revealed that the male left a club in Harker Heights on foot at approximately 1:30am on Sunday, January 10, 2010; the family had not heard from him since that time. Family members began searching when they located him in this wooded area; the resident heard voices behind the house and when he saw why they were there he called 911. Justice of the Peace Bill Cooke pronounced Isidro Hernandez-Cordero deceased at 9:20pm and ordered an autopsy to be performed at the Southwestern Institute of Forensic Sciences in Dallas.

The cause of death is undetermined at this time; detectives are awaiting the results of the autopsy.

This death continues to be investigated and information will be released as it becomes available.
