

PRESS RELEASE

WARNING WARNING WARNING

Avoid the Embarrassment of Being Arrested

The City of Killeen Marshal's Office and the Killeen Police Department will combine their resources and efforts to participate in this year's Statewide Court Warrant Round-up. Citizens who have a warrant with the Killeen Municipal Court can come in and pay without fear of being arrested. The Warrant Round-Up will begin February 19, 2010 and end on March 15, 2010.

The Court accepts payments of cash, money order, and Visa/Master Card (No checks). Citizens can also take care of their fines by using the following resources listed below:

Pay via phone: 1-888-462-1156

Pay via internet at www.ci.killeen.tx.us or www.officialpayments.com

Pay via mail: Killeen Municipal Court of Record

P. O. Box 1329

Killeen, Texas 76540-1329

The Killeen Municipal Court staff requests that all citizens inquiring about a warrant please come to the Court to resolve these matters. Therefore, citizens should refrain from overwhelming the office with phone calls about their citations.

The City of Killeen has added personnel to their dispatch and jail staff to accommodate a large number of arrests. Judge Gibson will be arraigning those individuals who are arrested during that time. In order to avoid being arrested at home or at their place of employment, citizens need to come to the Killeen Municipal Court and take care of their fines as soon as possible.

Killeen Municipal Court is located at 200 East Avenue D and North 4th street.
