PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 12, 2011

Killeen Police arrested two teenagers after they were caught burglarizing Palo Alto Middle School on Saturday, April 9, 2011.

Officers responded to Palo Alto Middle School located at 2301 W. Elms Rd. at 4:22am, after receiving information that a burglary was in progress. Upon the officers arrival they saw two white males wearing all black clothing with black coverings over their faces and gloves, inside the school taking items.

The officers entered the school when the two males attempted to hide from them. They were located inside a classroom where they had broken a window to make entry into the school. The males were taken into custody and transported to the Killeen City Jail.

This case was reviewed by the Bell County District Attorney's Office and complaints were returned charging Roberto Rene Luna, of Killeen and James Matthew Gibson, of Killeen with Burglary of a Building. Justice of the Peace Bill Cooke set their bonds at $75,000 each; they are currently in the Bell County Jail.
