PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 28, 2011

Killeen Police are investigating the deaths of a father and daughter that occurred in the 2100 block of Coach Dr. today, Thursday, April 28, 2011.

Officers responded to 2114 Coach Dr. when a family member made a 911 call at 4:17am, telling them that they arrived home to find that there had been two people shot inside the residence. Officers arrived to find the 37 year old male resident and his 5 year old daughter with gunshot wounds. The female victim was immediately transported to Metroplex Hospital where she was pronounced deceased at 5:15am by Justice of the Peace Bill Cooke. Judge Cooke then arrived at 2114 Coach Dr. and pronounced the male victim deceased at 5:45am; he ordered autopsies to be performed at the Southwestern Institute of Forensic Sciences in Dallas on both victims.

The preliminary investigation reveals that the 37 year old Anthony Means shot his daughter, 5 year old Nina Sheree Means, and then shot himself.

Detectives continue to investigate the cause of this probable Murder/Suicide at this time. Information will be released as it becomes available.
